AFA influence making advertisers nervous

Pepsi cancels ads, tour; Domino’s pulls ads from ‘SNL’, Mennen from ‘Heartbeat’

Efforts by AFA to get a reduction in the amount of television sex, violence, profanity and anti-Christian stereotyping are beginning to pay off. One month after AFA called for a boycott of Pepsi because of the company’s use of Madonna as a role model for youth, Pepsi announced that they would no longer air their commercial using the pop singer. In addition, Pamela C. McGuire, Division Counsel of Pepsi, told AFA executive director Donald E. Wildmon that the company would not sponsor Madonna’s world tour.

Pepsi had signed a reported $5 million contract with Madonna. Other companies making moves to cancel their sponsorship of TV programs include Domino’s Pizza and The Mennen Company. Domino’s action came after thousands

Churches, businesses join Holiday Inns boycott as chain refuses to drop porn movies

Recently Keith Mitchell, insurance agent in Emporia, Virginia, wrote Holiday Inns: “I have never participated in a boycott. Such an activity, I have always maintained, may be okay for some folks, but not for me. However, I have just recently thrown my support behind the American Family Association’s efforts to stop the spread of pornography in America, and part of that support includes not staying at Holiday Inns...Okay, so my not staying at one of your inns won’t exactly bring you to your knees; I realize that. But I wonder just how many others out there like me have finally gotten to the point of saying, ‘Okay, that’s it; I’ve had enough.’ I, for one, am sick and tired of the suggestive and downright filthy trash that passes itself off as entertainment these

Taxes support anti-Christian ‘work of art’

The anti-Christian bias and bigotry which comes from Hollywood and many in the media has passed over to the “art” world. That bigotry is expressed in a “work of art” recently displayed in art museums around the country. The “work of art” is a very large, vivid photograph of Christ hanging on a cross submerged in urine.

The “work of art” was done by Andrea Serrano. Mr. Serrano was rewarded for his anti-Christian bigotry by The Rockefeller Foundation and The Equitable Foundation with a $15,000 prize. To encourage acquisition of the works displayed in the exhibition, museums participating were given grants of $10,000. A work (or works) by one or more of the award recipients is purchased with these funds.

Toyota refuses to stop supporting porn magazine

Toyota has disregarded two appeals from AFA to drop their promotion of pornography by discontinuing advertising support for Playboy magazine. According to AFA records, Toyota is the only automobile manufacturer which supports Playboy with advertising dollars.

All American automobile manufacturers discontinued advertising in porn magazines such as Playboy and Penthouse several years ago. Honda recently notified AFA that they discontinued support for the publications over a year ago, and Nissan told AFA in 1986 that they no longer advertised in the porn magazines. Mazda stated that they had never advertised in the publications.
RESOURCES FROM American Family Association

Executive Summary: Images of Children, Crime and Violence in Playboy, Penthouse and Hustler. A 24-page summary of a study showing the connection between child sexual abuse and porn magazines. Available for $2 per copy for a single copy, $1.50 per copy for 2-9 copies, $1 per copy for 10-49 copies, and 50¢ per copy for 50 or more copies. Best tool to get stores to stop selling porn magazines. Distribute to stores selling porn magazines in your community and ask that they discontinue the sales.

A Guide To What One Person Can Do About Pornography. A 24-page step-by-step guide on how to oppose pornography in your community. Probably the best how-to guide to fight pornography available. Covers all kinds of porn outlets—magazines, videos, cable, etc. Same prices as the Executive Summary.

Anti-porn billboard. Designed for use on standard sized billboard (a thirty-sheet poster, 21" x 97"). Pictures a little child with words “Pornography victimizes women and children.” Comes with AFA name. Printed in two colors with top and bottom lines in red and body in black. Available at AFA cost of $25 each, including shipping. For an additional $29 (for the first copy) local group or individual may replace “American Family Association” with the local name, or add a line with the local name and American Family Association. After first copy of special order, add only $4 for each additional copy.

Donald E. Wildmon books. The Home Invaders deals with the overall moral situation in our society; The Case Against Pornography explores the problem of pornography. Efforts to decrease sex, violence, profanity, anti-Christian stereotypes take major step

Efforts to decrease the amount of sex, violence, profanity and anti-Christian stereotyping took a major step forward during the recently completed monitoring period by Christian Leaders for Responsible Television. CLEAR-TV is a coalition of approximately 1600 Christian leaders, including the heads of over 70 denominations and hundreds of bishops and superintendents from various denominations, that was begun in 1986 by AFA executive director Donald E. Wildmon. CLEAR-TV monitored network programs during the April 27-May 24 sweeps period. A one-year boycott of one or more of the leading sponsors of sex, violence, profanity and anti-Christian stereotyping will be announced in the August issue of the AFA Journal.

United Methodists vote to boycott Holiday Inns because of porn movies

The Detroit Conference of the United Methodist Church has voted to endorse a boycott of Holiday Inns because of the motel chain’s refusal to stop showing in-room porn movies. The boycott was endorsed by the 1,500 clergy and lay delegates. The conference asked their 121,000 members to boycott the motels which show the porn movies. Last year the West Michigan Conference of the United Methodist Church approved a boycott of Holiday Inns.

According to Rev. David Stewart, who worked for three years to get the boycott approved, the movies don’t show penetration, but “you see breasts and full frontal nudity and men on top of women.” Stewart said the movies mixed graphic violence with sex.

AFA has learned that the num-

Toyota continues support for porn magazines

Toyota continues to support the goals and philosophies of Playboy by giving the porn magazine thousands of dollars in advertising support. Toyota is the only automobile maker which continues to support the porn publication. Most of Playboy’s advertising support comes from liquor and tobacco companies. Toyota has been asked several times to stop supporting the porn publication but has continued to do so.

Recently, Playboy gave $2,500 to help underwrite the legal costs in a West Valley City, Utah, police sergeant’s federal suit challenging state fornication and sodomy laws. Playboy gave the money to Utah Legal Clinic to help Sgt. Gary Oliversen. Oliversen and three other officers were disciplined for

AFA begins push for public service ads to counter broadcast alcohol ads

The American Family Association Education and Legal Defense Foundation will begin a national drive to require broadcasters to air an equal amount of public service ads highlighting the consequences of drinking for every alcohol ad they run.

“It is an idea whose time has come,” said Donald E. Wildmon. “The time has come to stop the alcohol industry’s exploitation of our society, especially our youth.” Such a proposal caused broadcasters to voluntarily drop commercials for cigarettes. “Over the past several years the number of people who smoke has declined, and America is better because of that drop. A similar drop in the use of alcohol will benefit America, also,” he said.

Excellent new resource from AFA

Pornography: A Report. An in-depth look at the effects of pornography. A 36-page publication with some of the finest material available showing true effects of pornography. Contains sections—Research, Scholarly Opinion, Confessions of Criminals, Pornography and Crime, Those Who Suffer, Letters, Pornography and Drugs. THE resource to give to someone not knowledgeable about pornography! Articles by Dr. Harold N. of Menninger School of Psychiatry, Dr. Victor Cline of University of Utah, TV producer Kenneth Wall, former CBS president Arthur Taylor, Dr. Reo Christenson of Miami University, and Dr. Paul Tanne.

“When we began putting this resource together, I thought it would be a good project. The more we worked on PORNOGRAPHY: A REPORT, the more excited I became. I believe we have produced a dynamite tool for us to fight against porn. It educates with facts, figures, research, and comments from criminals and victims. I wish people would put a copy in the hands of every pastor and elected leader in their community.” —Donald E. W.

Mennen sends misleading letter, Clorox silent

Advertising Age, a trade publication of the advertising industry, stated on August 28 that the efforts of Christian Leaders for Responsible Television to reduce the sex, violence, profanity and anti-Christian stereotyping has already been a success.

In an editorial entitled “Weighing the Wildmon effect,” Advertising Age criticized the efforts of AFA executive director Donald E. Wildmon to reduce offensive programming. Wildmon is also executive director of CLeR-TV, Dr. Billy A. Melvin, executive director of the National Association of Evangelicals, serves as chairman of the 1600 member coalition. Calling Wildmon a “huckster” and a “one-man band”, the editorial went on to say that the impact had been made. “But even if the entire TV industry still supports this view [negative view of Wildmon], the fact is that the Rev. Wildmon has made his point. With or without a boycott, reports have it that TV show packagers...

United Methodists vote to boycott Holiday Inns because of porn movies

The Kentucky Conference of the United Methodist Church voted at their Annual Conference to boycott Holiday Inns because of their in-room porn movies. The action by the United Methodists in Kentucky follows similar action by the Western Michigan and Detroit United Methodist conferences. The Kentucky conference has approximately 78,000 members. And according to Perry Gil- lum, Director of Public Relations for the Church of God of Prophecy, that denomination also supports the boycott. Many other denominations and local and area church organizations, along with scores of businesses, have joined the boycott. More than 100 locally-owned Holiday Inns have pulled the movies since AFA began their boycott. While some of the locally...

Report says Baptists, Catholics cause teen suicides

Christianity is a major factor in teenage suicide, according to a new report published by the federal government. The Catholics and Baptists were specifically mentioned in causing some youth to kill themselves. The 800-page report, published by U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and entitled “Report of the Secretary’s Task Force on Youth Suicide” is dated January 1989. It was the culmination of two years of tax supported research. The segment of the report that blames religion for some teen suicides is called “Gay Male and Youth Suicide”. It was written by Paul Gibson who was identified as a San Francisco therapist and program consultant.

According to the study, Catholics and Baptists and other traditional and fundamentalist religions depict homosexuality as morally...

FCC takes action on indecent broadcasting

FCC Chairman Alfred Sikes wasted no time showing that he means business when it comes to enforcing the law against indecent broadcasting.

The first major action Sikes took after assuming his new post was to send three radio stations a letter listing the charges against them. The stations have 30 days to respond. “The actions we took today simply reflect our intention to enforce the law,” Sikes said.

The action by the FCC follows years of efforts by members of AFA and other concerned citizens to get the FCC to enforce the law. During confirmation hearings for Sikes and two other commissioners on July 31, the subject of indecent broadcasting was the main item of discussion.

If the stations are found guilty, the FCC could impose fines of up to...

Growing number of stores pull porn magazines

Within the past few months, more than 2000 stores have discontinued selling porn magazines such as Playboy, Penthouse, and Hustler. These include Perry Drug Stores, Arbor Drugs, Texaco (corporately owned stores), Plaid Pantries, Rite Aid, Peoples, Albertson's, East Coast Oil, Costal Mart, S&S Food Stores, Suwannee and Swifty Stores.

Recently in Greensboro, North Carolina, Melvin Wharton pleaded guilty to raping four women and blamed his actions on a fixation with pornography. While on the job at a convenience store near the victims' apartments, Wharton read porn magazines, the kind of porn magazines still sold by many convenience stores across America. "The fantasies got so strong I couldn't control it," Wharton told police. Friends described Wharton as an exemplary father and husband and a dedicated employee and Army Reserve member. In a confession similar to that of Ted Bundy, Wharton said that after the first attack, "I just couldn't believe I had done it. The desire was getting great, and I was scared but I wanted to do it again."

Each victim said Wharton surprised them, gagged their mouths with their clothing, bound their arms and legs tightly with lamp or appliance cords, and covered their faces. During the rapes, the attacker threatened to kill the women if they failed to comply.

Stores which continue to sell these porn magazines ignore the indisputable connection between pornography and sex crimes, and the devastating effect pornography is having on our society. They also ignore the victims of pornography, mostly women and children.

The porn magazines promote nearly every kind of perversion, including incest, homosexuality and group sex. The magazines also help promote the use of illegal drugs and continually ridicule and mock Christ and Christian values.

Sears will continue pushing Playboy

Sears has refused to stop selling Playboy clothing, and has informed AFA that it will continue promoting the Playboy line. The move will put additional funds into the coffers of Playboy to help the pornography-promoting company fund its anti-family, anti-Christian philosophy.

Over a period of several weeks, AFA asked Sears to discontinue the Playboy line. However, John Blalock, director of Public Relations for Sears, informed Donald E. Wildmon that Sears had no intention of dropping the Playboy products.

"Sears is a company with a strong tradition of serving American families," Blalock said. "However...after a complete review we made the decision to continue sales..." of Playboy clothing. "Sears' reputation as a responsible corporate citizen dates back to our very founding more than 100 years ago. We will continue to adhere to the high standards we have set for ourselves in all our business practices," Blalock said.

Playboy, in addition to pushing its porn magazine and videos, has

Mennen, Clorox send misleading letters to thwart growing boycott

In an effort to thwart the growing boycott called by Christian Leaders for Responsible Television (CLEAR-TV), both Mennen and Clorox are sending deceptive and misleading letters to those who have written to the companies. CLEAR-TV identified the two companies as leading sponsors of sex, violence, profanity and anti-Christian stereotyping and called for a one year boycott of their products.

Chrm. C.R. Weaver of Clorox writes: "We don't understand why Clorox was selected as a boycott-target." He goes on to say other companies were greater offenders than Clorox, but he fails to identify those companies. Chrm. Donald Horne of Mennen says CLEAR-TV was "unfair" in calling for a boycott of Mennen. Dr. Billy Melvin, executive director of National Association of Evangelicals, wrote Mr. Horne twice asking why the boycott was unfair, but Mr. Horne refused to respond.

"Both Mennen and Clorox were contacted prior to the monitoring.

Sponsor a Child for Only $12 a Month.

At last! Here is a $12 sponsorship program for Americans who are unable to send $20, $21, or $22 a month to help a needy child.

And yet, this is a full sponsorship program because for $12 a month you will receive:
- a 3½" x 5" photograph of the child you are helping.
- two personal letters from your child each year.
- a complete Sponsorship Kit with your child's case history and a special report about the country where your child lives.
- quarterly issues of our newsletter, “Sponsorship News.”

All this for only $12 a month?

Yes—because Children International believes that many Americans would like to help a needy child. And so we searched for ways to reduce the cost—without reducing the help that goes to the child you sponsor.

For example, unlike some of the other organizations, your child does not write each month, but two letters a year from your child keep you in contact and, of course, you can write to the child just as often as you wish.

Also, to keep down administrative costs, we do not offer the so-called “trial child” that the other organizations mail to prospective sponsors before the sponsors send any money.

We do not feel that it is fair to the child for a sponsor to decide whether or not to help a child based on a child’s photograph or the case history.

Every child who comes to Children International for help is equally needy!

And to minimize overseas costs, our field workers are citizens of the countries where they serve. Many volunteer their time, working directly with families, orphanages and schools.

You can make a difference!

$12 a month may not seem like much help to many Americans, but to a poor family living on an income of $1.50 or $2.00 a day, your sponsorship can help make all the difference in the world.

Will you sponsor a child? Your $12 a month will help provide so much:
- emergency food, clothing and medical care.
- a chance to attend school.
- help for the child’s family and community, with counseling on housing, agriculture, nutrition, and other vital areas to help them become self-sufficient.

A child needs your love!

Here is how you can sponsor a child immediately for only $12 a month:
1. Fill out the coupon and tell us if you want to sponsor a boy or a girl, and check the country of your choice.
2. Or mark the “Emergency List” box and we will assign a child to you that most urgently needs to have a sponsor.
3. Send your $12 in right now and this will eliminate the cost of a “trial child.”

Then, in just a few days you will receive your child’s name, photograph and case history.

May we hear from you? We believe that our sponsorship program protects the dignity of the child and the family and at the same time provides Americans with a positive and beautiful way to help a needy youngster.

Little Marta lives in the Holy Land — and she is only one example of children from countries around the world who urgently need a sponsor.

Thanks again for coming out to D.C. last month. I appreciate you guys taking time out of your busy schedules to assist with our investigation. I am sorry that I was unable to help you out with the hotel on the way back to Tupelo. I received your e-mail in reference to the donation made in September 2007. I was speaking with another agent and he had come across something referencing the NEA and American Family Association. I think we are looking for any stories in the AFA Journal that may have referenced the NEA and their support of obscene material; and/or members of congress providing support for the NEA. The stories we are looking for should have been published prior to May 1990. Let me know if there is any other information that can assist you. Thanks for all of your help.

CleaR-TV boycott working: networks reduce sex, violence, profanity by 32%

Fall monitoring results show that the boycott promoted by Christian Leaders for Responsible Television is having a tremendous impact in reducing the amount of sex, violence and profanity on prime-time network television.

The total number of sex, violence and profanity incidents on the three networks combined dropped by 32% during the fall monitoring when compared with monitoring done during the spring of 1989. This was the greatest drop between two monitoring periods since AFA began monitoring in the late 1970s.

"The dramatic drop in the amount of sex, violence and profanity shows the direct impact which the CleaR-TV boycott is having," said Donald E. Wildmon, executive director of AFA and CleaR-TV. "There is no other way to account for the drop. The advertisers listened to those who supported the concerns of CleaR-TV, they made their opinions known to the networks, and the networks responded."

Wildmon said that during a similar boycott in the early eighties, the networks reduced the sex, violence and profanity by more than 20% but not anywhere near as much as during the CleaR-TV boycott.

The three networks aired a combined total of 34.07 sex, violence and profanity incidents per hour during the spring monitoring, but reduced that number to 23.31 during the fall monitoring. Sex incidents were reduced by 18%, profanity 41% and violence 30%. NBC reduced their sex, violence and profanity by 36%, ABC by 36% and CBS by 27%.

"The reduction is a direct result of the hard work and sacrifice of those who are participating with CleaR-TV," Wildmon said. "We strongly urge continued support for the boycott of Mennen and Clorox through July. This is a successful first step toward constructive television."

According to Dr. Billy Malvin, Chairman of CleaR-TV, the Ex-

Circle K suffering serious financial trouble, continues sale of pornographic magazines

Circle K, the leading retailer of porn magazines in America, has been beset lately with serious financial problems. During the last year, Circle K stock has dropped from $11 per share to $4. Efforts by Chief Executive Karl Eller to sell the company failed when no buyers were interested. The company has sold 25 stores in Hawaii and 350 stores in the Northwest to raise much needed cash. Financial executives familiar with the company say that it may have to take bankruptcy. Circle K lost $5.5 million in 1989.

Circle K has consistently refused to get out of the pornography business. AFA urges concerned individuals and groups to continue to boycott Circle K and to urge others to do the same. Concerned individuals can call Circle K Chief Executive Karl Eller person-to-person to protest their pornography sales. If Mr. Eller is busy or in a meeting, the call doesn't cost anything and a message can be left asking that he return your call. The number to call is 602-253-9600.

While over 20,000 stores have discontinued selling the porn magazines, Circle K has refused. 7-Eleven stopped selling the magazines in 1986 in all their corporate-owned stores because of its connection with child sexual abuse.

In honor of David Caton, AFA has set April 27 as "Picket For David Day" and is encouraging

Rev. William McGuffey published his legendary Readers in the 1830s. Later editions, from 1857 on, were revised without his approval, and expurgated most references to religion. They were still excellent texts, but no longer Christian texts.

Now a Christian publisher, Mott Media, has reprinted the originals. We are offering them, with pride and admiration, for parents, godparents and grandparents who care enough to teach at home, or at least to help, the children they love.

The Original McGuffeys: 7 superb texts

Pictorial Eclectic Primer for Young Children. For kindergarten or pre-kindergarten: the alphabet, simple sentences and stories, charming original engravings.

Eclectic Primer. More advanced. For first-graders and bright kindergarteners.

Eclectic First Reader for Young Children. For second-graders or bright first-graders. Lots of spelling, and the words get as hard as "would" and "stalked" and "deranged."

Eclectic Second Reader. 85 lessons, each a well written story with a moral, some from Scripture or American history. Each lesson is followed by 1) questions drawn from it (e.g., How did Washington receive Lafayette? What is the Fifth Commandment? What is emulatation?) and by 2) spelling words ("believed," "myrrh," "forsook"). When your children master this book, they'll be years ahead of their peers.

Eclectic Third Reader. Authors like Addison, Irving, Byron...Bible selections...excursions into history like the marvelous "Alexander the Great" — adults can read this book with pleasure. After your child of 8 or 9 finishes it, he's reading better, and understanding more, than most high schoolers.

Eclectic Fourth Reader. Quite beyond the average collegian today, yet within the reach of well trained 10- to 12-year-olds. Dozens of authors they should meet: Johnson, Webster, Millon, Jefferson, Schiller, Bacon, Southerly, Bryant, Shakespeare, etc.

Eclectic Progressive Spelling Book. "Progressive" because it starts with basics and builds to an advanced vocabulary worthy of a graduate student. Not only definitions but pronunciations and usage in good sentences.

Mark Sullivan, in his 6-volume history, Our Times, ranks McGuffey up with Washington and Lincoln in influence. And a wonderful influence it was. Do your children deserve less?

Startling call from eminent professor of English

"Let's bring back McGuffey's Reader — to College" is how Carl Bode, University of Maryland, titled his article in The Chronicle of Higher Education. Wrote Bode: "I guarantee that regular doses of McGuffey will brighten their eyes and bring roses to their cheeks...teach them to concentrate on the printed page...give them some of the memorable poetry and prose of our Anglo-American inheritance...make them better men and women...not to mention better-spoken men and women."

CLEaR-TV plans new advertiser boycott following spring sweeps

Following the success of their efforts in promoting a year-long boycott of Mennen and Clorox, the Executive Committee of Christian Leaders for Responsible Television voted unanimously to monitor network television again during the upcoming spring sweeps and launch a boycott of one or more of the leading sponsors of sex, violence, profanity and anti-Christian stereotyping.

Reports on the success of the Clorox/Mennen boycott are now reaching the inner halls of major advertisers. A recent report from Merrill Lynch reduced that company's earnings estimates for Clorox. Merrill Lynch said of their reevaluation of Clorox stock, based on the fourth quarter of 1989: "The key reason is that Clorox's base business has slowed substantially."

CLEaR-TV officials had stated when the boycott was announced last July that it would be the fourth quarter before the effects of the boycott would begin to show up.

Picket of Circle K, other stores set for April 27

Churches, groups and individuals across America are planning to participate in the "Picket For David Day" scheduled for April 27. The nationwide picketing is scheduled to support David Caton and to protest the sale of pornography in local communities.

Caton, as Florida state director of AFA, and AFA of Florida were recently sued by Playboy, Penthouse and Waldenbooks, owned by K mart.

"We hope that concerned people all across America will participate in the Picket for David Day," said Donald E. Wildmon, executive director of AFA. "Playboy, Penthouse, and K mart sued David hoping to make people afraid of protesting the sale of pornography in their community. It is time for those opposing pornography to stand up and be counted by showing the pornographers and K mart that we will not be intimidated," Wildmon said. AFA is hoping that 1000 stores will be picketed on April 27. He said that some groups might want to picket on another day instead of April 27 and encouraged that action. AFA encourages picketing of Circle K and, if your community doesn't have a Circle K store, other stores selling pornography.

Circle K has continued in the pornography business despite research showing that the pornography they sell often causes child abuse and rape. More than 20,000 stores have discontinued selling porn magazines because of this, but Circle K has continued in the pornography business.

Information on how to organize a successful picket in your community can be found on page 21.

K mart sides with pornographers in anti-family battle

K mart, the nation's number two retailer, decided to cast their lot with the pornography industry in their battle against the family.

Porn magazines, Playboy and Penthouse, recently filed suit against AFA of Florida and David Caton, the Florida state director, because David had urged people to boycott and picket stores selling pornography and had written to stores selling pornography telling them of his plans.

How to teach your child the Bible — beautifully

FREE! This new $34.95 DELUXE EDITION of "the best summary of the Bible in story form available anywhere"
—NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Wonderful news! The classic Child's Story Bible by Catherine Vos is now updated by her daughter Marianne. But never fear, the new version isn't too new. Explains Marianne Vos Radius:

This new edition has been revised to conform more closely to our modern idiom, and to incorporate the many archaeological discoveries of the past thirty years which have corroborated and confirmed the Biblical account... every effort has been made to preserve my mother's style, and especially to remain absolutely faithful to the Bible as the inspired and infallible Word of God... The Bible text, where it is directly quoted, is the King James Version.

The children you love — don't they deserve this lovely book?

Not only will it implant precious words in their minds and hearts, lessons that will stay with them for a lifetime. More than that, the words come dressed beautifully. The children will savor the importance of this DELUXE EDITION as they gaze upon and handle a book of beauty featuring...

► 2 full-page maps in color: "Palestine During the Tribal Period" and "The New Testament World and Paul's Journey"
► Presentation Page: the children will remember your gift all their lives
► Beautiful gold stamping on the cover ornamentation
► Handsome marbled edges
► Large golden ribbon place-marker
► Big and impressive: 436 oversized 7 ½ x 10 pages
► ENTRAIL "Some Words Explained": a glossary of Bible terms — all defined in words the children can understand

Hailed by authorities as "truly magnificent"

"This truly magnificent work should be in every home where there are children and young people. Parents and Sunday school teachers will find it invaluable in giving a true introduction to the riches of God's Word. The children themselves will love it and read it." —Sunday School Times

"I have used The Child's Story Bible for years with our own children and recommend it enthusiastically." —MRS. BILLY GRAHAM

"The hundreds of thousands of persons who have been brought up on this book, and are now looking for a Bible story book for their own children, will at once recognize that these are the very same stories to which they as children listened in wonderment." —Christian Reader's Review

Clorox asks CLeaR-TV for end to boycott

Officials from Clorox, feeling the effects of a boycott by Christian Leaders for Responsible Television, have asked the group to end the boycott of Clorox products.

Clorox officials met with Dr. Billy A. Melvin, chairman of CLeaR-TV, in Chicago on February 20. Also present at the meeting were officials from Focus on the Family, headed by Dr. James Dobson. Clorox officials first approached Dr. Dobson and other Focus on the Family officials in December with hopes of finding a way to end the boycott. In January, Clorox officials contacted Melvin and asked for a meeting.

According to Melvin, the two groups are trying to work out an agreement that could end the boycott. Melvin said that Clorox’s proposal will be presented to the Executive Committee of CLeaR-TV, who will decide whether or not to end the boycott.

K mart ignores pleas of families, continues to side with pornographers

K mart continues to help the pornography industry in their battle against the family. The nation’s number two retailer joined pornographers in filing suit against AFA of Florida and David Caton, the Florida state director, because David had urged people to boycott and picket stores selling pornography and had written to stores selling pornography telling them of his plans.

Despite thousands of letters and phone calls, K mart continues to support the pornographers finance the suit against David. The pornographers have hired some of the most expensive lawyers in the country, and K mart has agreed to help pay their salaries. K mart has a financial interest in the suit, since Waldenbooks, a K mart subsidiary, sells porn magazines in their stores.

K mart became the first legitimate retailer in the nation to side with the pornography industry in suing someone opposing pornography.

National picket of Circle K, other stores set for April 27

Several churches, groups and individuals have notified AFA that they plan to participate in the picketing of Circle K and other stores selling pornography on “Picket For David Day” April 27. The nationwide picket is in support of David Caton and to protest the sale of pornography in local communities.

Circle K is the largest distributor of porn magazines in America. Circle K has refused to get out of the pornography business because of profits from the publications. 7-Eleven discontinued sales of porn magazines and gave up millions of dollars in profits when it learned of the connection between child sexual abuse and porn. Circle K has disregarded that connection and opted to continue selling the publications because of the huge profits involved. Like drugs, pornography has a large profit margin.

The largest stockholder of Circle K is Carl Lindner, Chairman of Great American Communications Company. Forbes 400 called Mr. Lindner a “strict Baptist”. Kind letters of request to Mr. Lindner might have a positive effect. Address: One East 4th Street, Cincinnati, OH 45202, phone 513-579-2177.

The porn publications sold by Circle K have long promoted the use of illegal drugs. Playboy founded one organization promoting legalization of drugs and has supported legalization editorially for many years.

NBC agrees with critics
NBC has finally agreed with critics of their geriatric sex series GOLDEN GIRLS that the show has focused too much on illicit sex. Producer Paul Witt says they've reduced the sleazy sex content because “it was the right thing to do in this era when it's so important to be sexually responsible.”

Geraldo admits trash
Geraldo Rivera has recently made some interesting admissions about his tabloid TV talk show: “I was embarrassing myself... I stepped over the line. I am saying I went too far.”

More than a quarter of the stations which carry his show complained about one epissode when he aired live from a topless doughnut shop in Colorado. Other topics last November included Teen Prostitutes, Women Who Date Married Men, Selling of Forbidden Desires, Cocaine Cowgirls, Men Who Marry Prostitutes and Transsexual Transformations: Stages of Transition.

Rivera admitted what the rest of the nation has known for a long time: “...maybe for the first time, I find myself out of step with the moral climate of the country.”

Networks favor liberal, abortion groups
Which women's groups' meetings rate network coverage? In July, 1,500 pro-choice National Organization for Women delegates in Cincinnati drew evening news coverage from ABC, CBS, CNN and NBC. Nightly News sent Lisa Myers, a leading political reporter, to cover the story. When the leftist National Women's Political Ca-cus met in St. Paul in August, ABC, CBS and CNN carried the story on their evening broadcasts. CBS had Chief Political Correspondent Bruce Morton on the scene.

Then on November 4, the conservative Concerned Women for America celebrated its tenth anniversary with a national convention linked by satellite to 180 cities across the country in which 50,000 members participated. They heard speeches from George Bush, Pat Buchanan, and William Bennett. None of the networks bothered to cover the mass gathering of non-liberal, pro-life women.

White students more likely to abuse drugs
Figures released from a recent nationwide survey found that white high school students are more likely to abuse drugs than their black counterparts.

A survey of 350,000 students, both black and white, was conducted in 38 states during the 1988-89 school year by the national Parent's Resource Institute for Drug Education Inc.

The survey found that black adolescents who stay in school are less likely than comparably white students to drink hard liquor, smoke marijuana or to use cocaine, hallucinogens or stimulants.

Marsha Keith Schuchard, a co-founder of Atlanta-based PRIDE, said the key for black families is keeping teenagers in school since black students who stay in school have significantly fewer drug and alcohol problems.

NEA continues funding anti-Christian art, pornography with tax dollars

Editor's note: Because of much misunderstanding concerning the funding of pornography and anti-Christian literature by the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA), on March 28 Donald E. Wildmon sent the following fax to NEA Chairman John Frohnmayer and Congressman Pat Williams (D-MT).

"I invite you to debate the NEA issue with me on any live national television program. I feel that the best interests of the American taxpayer would be served by such a debate. I await your response."

Wildmon asked for the public debate in order to clear up misunderstandings regarding NEA supported art. On April 12, Mr. Frohnmayer accepted. At press time, however, Congressman Williams had not responded to Mr. Wildmon's invitation.

The National Endowment for the Arts is a government agency supported by tax dollars. This year its budget is $171,000,000. President Bush has requested $175,000,000 for the NEA during the coming year. Its chairman says that to do what they really want to do they need $300,000,000.

President of Kmart subsidiary denies his stores sell pornography

Waldenbooks President Harry Hoffman has publicly denied that his company sells pornography. Waldenbooks is owned by Kmart.

In a letter to the editor of the Augusta, Georgia Chronicle on March 20, Hoffman wrote: "Re: Important! Call K mart and tell them you are joining the boycott. The toll free number is 1-800-63K-mart (1-800-635-6278).

the March 19 letter from Rev. Bill Rice 'Calls for boycott of pornography backers.' Waldenbooks does not sell pornography." Hoffman does not deny that the K mart owned stores sell magazines such as Playboy and Penthouse, but he does not consider such magazines pornography.

In his letter, he continued: "The real question is: Do Americans have the right to buy—and stores the right to sell—constitutionally-protected material? We believe they do.

"We (Waldenbooks and K mart) agreed to be one of the partners in the lawsuit against the American Family Association because it pitted us firmly and unequivocally against what we view as an attempted abridgement of

Circle K near bankruptcy, distributor pulls magazines in Florida

Circle K is near bankruptcy, according to the Wall Street Journal. In Florida, the distributor which supplies Circle K with magazines—including the porn publications—has stop supplying all magazines to Circle K. Reports place the number of stores affected at over 600. The magazines were pulled from all Circle K stores around Tampa and in other parts of the state. "When the porn magazines are pulled for any reason, it certainly helps in the battle against pornography," said Donald E. Wildmon, executive director of AFA.

According to the Wall Street Journal, Circle K's store operations are now being run by the company's new president, Robert Dearth, a former aide to the company's largest stockholder, Cincinnati investor Carl Lindner, who owns 38% of Circle K's stock.

AFA is again asking that requests that Circle K discontinue selling the porn publications go to Mr. Lindner. Forbes 400 called Mr. Lindner a "strict Baptist". Kind letters requesting Mr. Lindner to pull the pornography might be beneficial should he assume control of the company. The address is: Chr. Carl Lindner, Great American Communications Company, One East 4th Street, Cincinnati, OH 45202, phone 513-579-2177.

Individuals who desire to contact Circle K directly can do so by writing Pres. Robert Dearth, The Circle K Corporation, P.O. Box 52084, Phoenix, AZ 85072, phone 602-253-9600.

NEA funds homosexual film festival, writer who submitted homoerotic writings

"National Endowment for the Arts Chairman John Frohnmayer recently approved grants of $20,000 to lesbian writer Minnie Bruce Pratt and $9,000 to the San Francisco Lesbian and Gay Film Festival.

According to the homosexual publication Washington Blade, Pratt said she "had submitted some explicitly 'homoerotic' passages as part of her original application, but was approved for an award [by Frohnmayer] anyway. Pratt and other authors have asserted that they will not make changes in their work despite the new regulations."

Mr. Frohnmayer told Pratt, in awarding the grant, that the grant will "play some small part in nurturing a literature that truly reflects the immense diversity of the United States."

Mr. Frohnmayer also approved the grant of $9,000 to the San Francisco Lesbian and Gay Film Festival. The Blade says the film festival "usually includes some homoerotic [homosexual pornography] scenes." The festival is scheduled for June 15-24 in two venues.

TV monitoring complete, results to be announced soon

Christian Leaders for Responsible Television (CLEAR-TV) has completed monitoring of network prime-time television programs for the spring sweeps. The monitoring was done from April 26 through May 23.

Results of the monitoring will be available in late June. A boycott of one or more of the leading sponsors of sex, violence, profit and anti-Christian stereotyping will be announced by CLEAR-TV probably in July.

CLEAR-TV's efforts last year brought a decrease of 32% in the amount of sex, violence and profanity between the spring and fall monitoring periods.

"The results of the sweeps this year will let us know if the networks are increasing sex, violence and profanity again," said Dr. Billy A. Melvin, Chairman of CLEAR-TV.

"Our boycott of Clorox and Mennen has had a positive impact on television programs. We urge those who worked so hard to make that boycott a success to continue to work together to make the next one equally successful," Melvin said.

Melvin encouraged people to continue boycotting Mennen through July.

Eller out at Circle K, opens door for removal of porn

In a major move which could open the door for the removal of porn from Circle K, Karl Eller has resigned as chairman. Eller had arrogantly refused to pull the pornography. He has been replaced by Robert A. Dearth Jr., described as a "lieutenant" of Carl Linder, the largest stockholder. Circle K, which is having severe financial problems, is near bankruptcy. The chain is the largest retailer of porn magazines in America.

Mr. Linder has been a major financial supporter of anti-pornography groups in the past. AFA urges kind letters requesting Mr. Linder seek to remove the porn magazines. The address: Chrm. Carl Linder, Great American Communications Company, One East 4th Street, Cincinnati, OH 45202, phone 513-579-2177.

Several groups around the nation picketed Circle K stores on April 27. They joined approximately 300 other groups picketing stores which sell pornography in their local communities.

AFA has set June 23 as the next day of nationwide picketing of stores which sell pornography. Churches, groups and individuals are urged to organize a picket of stores selling pornography in their respective communities. For a free Picket Packet explaining how to organize a successful picket, contact AFA.

Individuals who desire to contact Circle K directly can do so by writing Pres. Robert Dearth, The Circle K Corporation, P.O. Box 52084, Phoenix, AZ 85072, phone 602-253-9600.

Rev. William McGuffey published his legendary Readers in the 1830s. Later editions, from 1857 on, were revised without his approval, and expurgated most references to religion. They were still excellent texts, but no longer Christian texts.

Now a Christian publisher, Mott Media, has reprinted the originals. We are offering them, with pride and admiration, for parents, godparents and grandparents who are enough to teach at home, or at least to help, the children they love.

The Original McGuffeys: 7 superb texts

- Pictorial Eclectic Primer for Young Children. For kindergarten or pre-kindergarten: the alphabet, simple sentences and stories, charming original engravings.
- Eclectic Primer. More advanced. For first-graders and bright kindergarteners.
- Eclectic First Reader for Young Children. For second-graders or bright first-graders. Lots of spelling, and the words get as hard as "would" and "stalked" and "deranged."
- Eclectic Second Reader. 85 lessons, each a well written story with a moral, some from Scripture or American history. Each lesson is followed by 1) questions drawn from it (e.g., How did Washington receive Lafayette? What is the Fifth Commandment? What is emulation?) and by 2) spelling words ("believed," "myrrh," "forsook"). When your children master this book, they'll be years ahead of their peers.
- Eclectic Third Reader. Authors like Addison, Irving, Byron...Bible selections...excursions into history like the marvelous "Alexander the Great" — adults can read this book with pleasure. After your child of 8 or 9 finishes it, he's reading better, and understanding more, than most high schoolers.

Eclectic Fourth Reader. Quite beyond the average collegian today, yet within the reach of well trained 10-to-12-year-olds. Dozens of authors they should meet: Johnson, Webster, Milton, Jefferson, Schiller, Bacon, Southey, Bryant, Shakespeare, etc.

Eclectic Progressive Spelling Book. "Progressive" because it starts with basics and builds to an advanced vocabulary worthy of a graduate student. Not only definitions but pronunciations and usage — good sentences.

Mark Sullivan, in his 6-volume history, Our Times, ranks McGuffey up with Washington and Lincoln in influence. And a wonderful influence it was. Do your children deserve less?

FREE BOOK. Free with each set: McGuffey and His Readers: Piety, Morality and Education in 19th Century America by John H. Westerhoff III

Startling call from eminent professor of English

"Let's bring back McGuffey's Reader — to College" is how Carl Bode, University of Maryland, titled his article in The Chronicle of Higher Education. Wrote Bode: "I guarantee that regular doses of McGuffey will brighten their eyes and bring roses to their cheeks...teach them to concentrate on the printed page...give them some of the memorable poetry and prose of our Anglo-American inheritance...make them better men and women, not to mention better-spoken men and women."

Radical New York homosexual artist-activist sues AFA, Wildmon for $5,000,000

A radical homosexual artist-activist with AIDS who said he would like to "douse (Sen. Jesse) Helms with a bucket of gasoline and set his turrid a-- on fire or throw (Congressman) William Dannemeyer off the Empire State Building." has sued Donald E. Wildmon and AFA for $5,000,000.

David Wojnarowicz claims that Wildmon violated copyright law and libeled him in a mailing sent to members of Congress, Christian leaders and media outlets. This new lawsuit is not connected with the one filed against AFA of Florida and Florida state director David Caton filed by Playboy.

128 stores pull porn magazines, more to follow

Star Enterprise of Houston, Texas has purchased 128 Florida Majik Market convenience stores and has negotiations underway to purchase 213 more of the stores. Star already operates 245 Texaco outlets in Florida.

When David Caton, director of AFA in Florida, contacted Texaco about pulling the porn magazines from the stores being purchased, he was told that the magazines would be dropped. All porn magazines were pulled from other Texaco outlets in Florida over a year ago.

However, the remaining Majik Markets in Florida and Georgia will continue to carry the porn magazines. F. Philip Handy, Chairman of Majik Market/Tenneco, has said that he will continue to sell pornography. Mr. Handy recently responded to a letter of concern from a customer by saying that "we believe that these magazines are only purchased by consenting adults." Handy went on to say that he was "comfortable with my position" of selling pornography.

In Texas, Stop N Go earnings have fallen from $15 million in 1985 to $8 million in 1989. V.H. Van Horn, chairman of National Convenience Stores which owns Stop N Go, is trying to make a major effort to reclaim lost profits by sprucing up their image. But Van Horn has reneged on a vow to pull the porn from his stores in communities which did not want it: Stop N Go made the vow several months ago, but has consistently refused to abide by it.

Circle K, the leading retailer of porn magazines in America, recently went bankrupt. If Carl Linder, the largest stockholder in Circle K with 38%, gains control of the convenience store chain, it is expected that he will pull the pornography. Linder has been a major financial supporter of anti-pornography groups in the past.

Dairy Mart, one of the largest retailers of porn magazines in the nation, also continues to sell the publications. Chrm. Charles Nirenberg criticizes those who boycott his stores because they sell pornography, calling them censors. He has praised Playboy, for their efforts to combat those opposed to pornography.

Chrm. V.H. Van Horn, National Convenience Stores, Inc., 100 Waugh Drive, Houston, TX 77007, phone 713-863-2200.

Repeat Of A Special, Limited Time Offer!
Churches can subscribe to the AFA Journal for their members for only $1!

Wow! Were we ever surprised! In April we ran a special offer allowing churches to subscribe to the AFA Journal for their members for six months for only $1. We made this offer to allow their members to become acquainted with the Journal. We were swamped! We had no idea we would receive such a response. Since many churches perhaps missed the offer, we have decided to repeat it once more.

Special Bonus Edition On Sex Education In September
Members of churches which take advantage of this special offer will receive a special bonus issue, SEX EDUCATION IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS: A REPORT. The special bonus issue will be combined with the September issue. This report is one every parent, school official and elected official should read.

To Qualify For This Special Offer
• Subscriptions must be NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS accompanied by a letter on church stationery requesting the special offer.
• Names and addresses, including zip codes, of those to whom the six-month subscriptions are going must accompany the request. (Sorry, bulk orders and All-Membership renewals do not qualify.)
• A check to pay for the subscriptions, in the amount of $1 each, must accompany the request.
• Subscriptions must be received not later than August 1 in order to receive the September bonus issue. Subscriptions for this special offer will be accepted until September 1, but those received after August 1 will not begin until the October issue.

If you have wanted to share the AFA Journal with your church members, now is the time! Take advantage of this special offer. It will not be repeated this year.

Networks increase sex, violence, profanity; top sponsors contacted

Monitoring by Christian Leaders for Responsible Television (CLEAR-TV) shows that the networks increased the amount of sex, violence and profanity by 30% during 1990 sweeps, as compared to last fall. Dr. Billy A. Melvin, chairman of CLEAR-TV, said that sex, violence and profanity incidents went from 24.52 per programming hour last fall to 31.87 this spring. The increase follows an approximate 30% decrease last fall. The group said NBC increased their sex, violence and profanity by 31%, CBS by 17% and ABC by 45%. CLEAR-TV monitored during the recent April/May sweeps period and found that NBC had 11.78 inci-

NEA funds 'artist' urinating on photo of Christ

The National Endowment for the Arts gave "artist" John Fleck $5,000 last year to help fund a performance in which he urinated on a photo of Christ. In his performance, titled "Blessed Are All the Little Fishes", Fleck places a photo of Christ in a toilet bowl and then urinates on it. Fleck's performance is only the latest of anti-Christian and pornographic "works of art" which the NEA has helped fund. An Artweek review last year described Fleck as being "known for his trim, operatic vocals, manic energy and flagrant displays of his private parts...he tests the boundaries by turning performance excesses and taboos into cultural commentary."

In other NEA developments, documents obtained by AFA indicate that, contrary to denials by National Endowment for the Arts officials, the live porn performance by Annie Sprinkle at the Kitchen Theater in New York earlier this year did receive tax support.

Circle K porn says Christianity breeds inhumanity

Many individuals do not realize that in addition to the anti-family stance of porn magazines, they also push anti-Christian bigotry. An article in a recent issue of Penthouse, sold by Circle K stores throughout the nation, is a vicious attack on Christianity and Christians. Despite requests from literally thousands of concerned individuals and churches, Circle K has refused to discontinue the sale of the porn magazines and their anti-Christian bigotry.

In their August issue, Penthouse writer James A. Haught says: "Obviously, people who think religion is a force for good are looking only at Dr. Jekyll and ignoring Mr. Hyde. They don't see the superstitious savagery pervading both history and current events...

"During the past three centuries, religion gradually lost its power over life in Europe and America, and church horrors ended in the West. But the poison lingered. The Nazi holocaust was rooted in ceny

Benjamin Bull joins AFA Legal Team

One month after announcing that the ministry would build a Legal Team to challenge leftwing groups such as the ACLU in courtrooms, the AFA has made an addition to their legal staff. Benjamin Bull has become the first addition to the AFA Legal Team. Bull began work for the Legal Team on August 1 and joins Peggy Coleman, who has been on the AFA staff for over two years. AFA executive director Don Wildmon announced plans to build a Legal Team in June. Plans call for an additional two or three attorneys to be added to the Legal Team within the next few months.

In addition to adding in-house attorneys, AFA will begin establishing a network of lawyers who will work with the Legal Team in their respective areas across the country. AFA will furnish training and resources for the network of local lawyers for cases they handle. Wildmon has encouraged lawyers interested in working with AFA in their areas to contact him.

'Bull, who is serving as the lead attorney for AFA in the David Wojnarowicz lawsuit, is a former lawyer for a Fortune 500 company and had previously served as General Counsel for Children's Legal Foundation (formerly CDL) in Phoenix. His experience in the area of the prosecution of obscenity is extensive. He has been engaged by U.S. Department of Justice and several states to train prosecutors in trial techniques in First Amendment related cases. He has engaged in extensive federal and state trial and appellate litigation and has testified as expert witness before U.S. Congress and numerous state legislatures. His legal memoranda have been published in the Congressional Record on two occasions.

Prior to joining CLF, he was the Senior Deput County Attorney for Fairfax County, Virginia and Senior City Attorney for Norfolk, Virginia. While with Norfolk, he obtained guilty verdicts in 18 of 19 criminal jury trials. He has had extensive trial experience.

He is a graduate of Old Dominion University and the University of South Carolina Law Center. He is a member of the State Bar of Virginia, District of Columbia, Arizona, U.S. Supreme Court, and for the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, and Eleventh U.S. Court of Appeals.

"We are thrilled to have Ben Bull join our Legal Team," Wildmon said. "We feel that his experience in obscenity will serve as a definite plus as we seek to build a strong Legal Team. In addition to the First Amendment rights of Christians, AFA's Legal Team will also be involved in the enforcement of obscenity laws. I think Ben Bull will prove to be a very valuable asset in our battle for Christians and the family in the courts."

"Boycott Folgers coffee. What it brews is misery and death." Narrated by actor Ed Asner, that TV attack ad has sparked a battle between a San Francisco-based peace group called Neighbor to Neighbor and corporate giant Procter & Gamble, whose Folger's brand is the top-selling U.S. coffee.

The 30-second spot, which aired on CBS affiliate KHOU in Houston, accused Procter & Gamble of prolonging the ten-year civil war in El Salvador by buying Salvadoran coffee beans, the country's leading export, and thereby supporting the government of President Alfredo Cristiani.

For Procter & Gamble, the charges have been too bitter to swallow. In an angry response, the Cincinnati-based consumer products firm pulled its advertising, worth as much as $1 million a year, from the Boston station.

Michael Volpe, general manager of WHDH, said that Procter & Gamble's canceling their advertising on his station hurt the First Amendment. "This has a lot more to do with First Amendment rights than with coffee and advertising. If you take away the right to run an ad, you're losing something."

Mr. Volpe evidently feels that Procter & Gamble should be forced to pay for views that make a direct attack on the company itself.

CLeaR-TV calls for boycott of Burger King, leading sponsor of sex, violence, profanity

Christian Leaders for Responsible Television (CLeaR-TV), a coalition of approximately 1600 Christian leaders, called for a one-year boycott of Burger King, a leading sponsor of sex, violence, and profanity during the Spring sweeps. During the monitoring period, Burger King helped sponsor 18.85 incidents of sex, violence and profanity with every 30-second commercial they ran on prime-time network television.

Playwright uses $15,500 grant to write play depicting Jesus as a foul-mouthed bigot

It appears that an attempt may be made in Congress to continue funding the National Endowment for the Arts without voting to reauthorize the agency. Such a parliamentary move would allow members of the House and Senate to provide funds for the NEA without having to vote directly on the issue. If they can bypass the reauthorization vote, members of Congress will not have to go on record as voting for or against the NEA. Members of Congress can then tell their constituents that they did not have an opportunity to vote on the NEA, but that they are opposed to tax funds supporting pornography and anti-Christian bigotry.

This is the same kind of parliamentary procedure used last year when the House voted for the

U.S.X. pulls porn magazines from 1700 stores

U.S.X. Corporation has pulled porn magazines from their 1700 Marathon Oil Company stores nationwide. Marathon stores operate under various names—Gastown, Bonded, Starvin’ Marvin, Ecol, Cheker, Port Speedway and Value. AFA had been urging U.S.X. to pull the porn magazines for more than a year. “We express our appreciation to U.S.X. for their decision. We think it is the proper one. With a more family-oriented atmosphere, more family-oriented individuals will obviously feel comfortable shopping with them,” said Donald E. Wildmon. He said that the action by U.S.X. will cost porn magazines such as Playboy and Penthouse millions of dollars. Since 1986 approximately 25,000 stores have discontinued selling the magazines because of action by AFA and other organizations.

AFA identified Circle K, Dairy Mart, Cumberland Farms, and Stop N Go convenience stores and K mart as being among the nation’s largest retailers of porn magazines.

The original McGuffey's Readers were different. They were Christian

Now they're available again after 125 years. You can get the full set here and SAVE $70

Rev. William McGuffey published his legendary Readers in the 1830s. Later editions, from 1857 on, were revised without his approval, and expurgated most references to religion. They were still excellent texts, but no longer Christian texts.

Now a Christian publisher, Mott Media, has reprinted the originals. We are offering them, with pride and admiration, for parents, grandparents and grandchildren who care enough to teach at home, or at least to help, the children they love.

The Original McGuffeys: 7 superb texts

Pictorial Eclectic Primer for Young Children. For kindergarten or pre-kindergarten: the alphabet, simple sentences and stories, charming original engravings.

Eclectic Primer. More advanced. For first-graders and bright kindergarteners.

Eclectic First Reader for Young Children. For second-graders or bright first-graders. Lots of spelling, and the words get as hard as would and stalked and deranged.

Eclectic Second Reader. 85 lessons, each a well written story with a moral, some from Scripture or American history. Each lesson is followed by 1) questions drawn from it (e.g., How did Washington receive Lafayette? What is the Fifth Commandment? What is emulation?) and by 2) spelling words (believed, myrrh, forsook). When your children master this book, they'll be years ahead of their peers.

Eclectic Third Reader. Authors like Addison, Irving, Byron...Bible selections...excursions into history like the marvelous "Alexander the Great"...adults can read this book with pleasure. After your child of 8 or 9 finishes it, he's reading better, and understanding more, than most high schoolers.

Eclectic Fourth Reader. Quite beyond the average collegian today, yet within the reach of well trained 10-to-12-year-olds. Dozens of authors they should meet: Johnson, Webster, Milton, Jefferson, Schiller, Bacon, Southey, Bryant, Shakespeare, etc.

Eclectic Progressive Spelling Book. "Progressive" because it starts with basics and builds to an advanced vocabulary worthy of a graduate student. Not only definitions but pronunciations and usage in good sentences.

Mark Sullivan, in his 6-volume history, Our Times, ranks McGuffey up with Washington and Lincoln in influence. And a wonderful influence it was. Do your children deserve less?

Burger King agrees to change practice, promote ad campaign; CLEaR-TV ends boycott

The Executive Committee of Christian Leaders for Responsible Television voted to end the boycott of Burger King effective November 1. The decision to end the boycott followed several weeks of negotiation between Burger King and CLEaR-TV.

Discussions regarding the boycott began on September 27 at the request of franchise owners of Burger King restaurants. Approximately 85% of all Burger King outlets are owned by franchisees. The franchise owners contribute to the advertising budget of Burger King Corporation, but have no direct say over how that money is spent. On October 17, officials from CLEaR-TV and Burger King Corporation and representatives of franchise owners again met in Washington at which time Burger

K mart adds child pornography to book line

According to the Clermont County (Ohio) Review, K mart has added child pornography to the line of pornography they sell in some Waldenbooks bookstores.

In an article dated August 8, 1990, and headlined “Kiddie porn on sale at mall bookstores,” the paper cited the kind of child pornography K mart sells. “Child pornography is not exclusively a photographic phenomenon. Some of the kinkiest kiddie porn is written form, available.

AFA begins national effort opposing new NC-17 rating for porn movies

American Family Association will begin a major effort to defeat public acceptance of the new NC-17 movie rating from the Motion Picture Association of America.

The new rating replaces the X rating.

AFA says that the new rating is an effort to mainline porn movies through the major studios. What this means for the average American is that X-rated movies, which were formerly restricted to porn theaters and were not advertised on television, radio, or in most local newspapers, will now be in local theaters attracting an audience through deceptive advertisements.

These NC-17 movies will be aimed at teenagers and young adults who frequent R-rated movies.

The first NC-17 porn movie was released by Universal Studios, the same studio which released the anti-Christian movie The Last Temptation of Christ. Efforts by AFA and other groups limited the rating, noting that the MPAA has “saved in to the commercial interests of those who are attempting to get sexually exploitive material into general theatrical release.”

A recent article in USA Today stated that more than 80% of children ages 11-16 were admitted to R rated movies. This is the market which Hollywood wants to reach with their new porn

Sponsor a Child for Only $12 a Month.

At last! Here is a $12 sponsorship program for Americans who are unable to send $20, $21, or $22 a month to help a needy child.

And yet, this is a full sponsorship program because for $12 a month you will receive:
- a 3¼" x 5" photograph of the child you are helping.
- two personal letters from your child each year.
- a complete Sponsorship Kit with your child's case history and a special report about the country where your child lives.
- issues of our newsletter, “Sponsorship News.”

All this for only $12 a month?

Yes—because Children International believes that many Americans would like to help a needy child. And so we searched for ways to reduce the cost—without reducing the help that goes to the child you sponsor.

For example, unlike some of the other organizations, your child does not write each month, but two letters a year from your child keep you in contact and, of course, you can write to the child just as often as you wish.

Also, to keep down administrative costs, we do not offer the so-called “trial child” that the other organizations mail to prospective sponsors before the sponsors send any money.

We do not feel that it is fair to the child for a sponsor to decide whether or not to help a child based on a child’s photograph or the case history.

Every child who comes to Children International for help is equally needy!

And to minimize overseas costs, our field workers are citizens of the countries where they serve. Many volunteer their time, working directly with families, orphanages and schools.

You can make a difference!

$12 a month may not seem like much help to many Americans, but to a poor family living on an income of $1.50 or $2.00 a day, your sponsorship can help make all the difference in the world.

Will you sponsor a child? Your $12 a month will help provide so much:
- emergency food, clothing and medical care.
- a chance to attend school.
- help for the child’s family and community, with counseling on housing, agriculture, nutrition, and other vital areas to help them become self-sufficient.

A child needs your love!

Here is how you can sponsor a child immediately for only $12 a month:
1. Fill out the coupon and tell us if you want to sponsor a boy or a girl, and check the country of your choice.
2. Or mark the “Emergency List” box and we will assign a child to you that most urgently needs to have a sponsor.
3. Send your $12 in right now and this will eliminate the cost of a “trial child.”

Then, in just a few days you will receive your child’s name, photograph and case history.

May we hear from you? We believe that our sponsorship program protects the dignity of the child and the family and at the same time provides Americans with a positive and beautiful way to help a needy youngster.
